Terms of Membership

The Old Dominion Kennel Club welcomes new members who are interested in advancing the best interests of pure-bred dogs and who are willing to work in support of these interests and actively participate in various ODKC events and programs. The Club also strives to foster warm friendships among its members and the highest degree of sportsmanship. As a proposed member, please indicate your willingness to abide by the following:

1. It is important that before applying for membership, each prospective member attend several meetings to be assured that membership in the Club will be mutually beneficial. Therefore, I agree to attend at least the two subsequent meetings in a 6-month period where my membership application will be read. As a proposed member, I will be notified of the date, time and location of regular monthly meetings.
2. It will be informed of the date of the meeting at which I am to be voted into membership and I will NOT attend that meeting. I will be informed of the vote in writing shortly after the meeting.
3. I agree to support the interests of the club by volunteering to work on at least one committee or special project. This includes not only those committees associated with specific shows, but others related to the broader interests of the club.
4. Any member exhibiting a dog at one of these shows agrees to help with pre-show set-up during the day(s) preceding the shows or with clean up after Best In Show judging. The Club President, Show Chair, Assistant Chair and Hospitality chair will not exhibit a dog at ODKC shows.
4. I agree to abide by the Constitution and By-laws of the Club and to fulfill all obligations of membership.
